BUCKNELL IS THE HEAVY

Virginia Has Many Strong Points and Will Put Up Good Fight.

COLLEGE songs and college colors will be heard and waved once more to-morrow at the Broad Street Park when the Bucknell gladiators from Bucknell meet the seniors of old Virginia on the gridiron. The game played between these teams in former years has been a very few and far between, and little can be judged from that. The teams of the teams will be decided by the game to-morrow, and under the new rules the Bucknell team will carry off the honors.

The Bucknell team has, from latest reports, more the better of it in the matter of weight. The average of the line will nearly reach the 160 mark, and the backs and ends are said to be heavier than Virginia's. That work will be the order of the day, and a fast game is predicted by those who know. Virginia is not in the habit of laying down when it runs up against a stronger team, and the game will be fought from start to finish.

With two old time stars to whip the others on when the points are close and a plucky line and back field, the chances are not all in favor of the Pennsylvania Bucknell. Bucknell has said that he is afraid of Virginia's line, and is declared to be the greatest back in the south. What Bucknell can do has been demonstrated by his work under the old rules, when he was handicapped by his weight. He is as fast as the best of them, and uses his head to perfection. In last year's game with V. P. I. Bucknell was the only man who could be depended on to stop the mighty Carpenter, and this he did every time he put his foot on the line or scrimmage. A dozen times the experts were brought to their feet by a flying tackle, which stopped the man who could not be stopped by the others.

With the open field-play which is bound to come with the forward rule, Bucknell will have ample opportunity to demonstrate himself not only in carrying the ball but in tackling. From what can be learned of the Bucknellers they will certainly get beyond the line, and then the little men will be seen.

In carrying the ball and gaining ground, Hammond Johnson is without doubt the best in the south. On the work he can always be depended on to get a few yards, and around the ends he has a stiff arm. He has been the despair of the tuckers for several years.

Of the other Virginians little is known. It was reported that "King" Cole gave them a good "cussing out" after practice yesterday.

It is a well known fact, however, that the fight is on, and that the game will be a close one, and that Virginia received a wedding after a few games, it means only that the men are a little overworked, and are nervous on that account. The few days of rest before the game will restore them to their normal state of physical excellence.

Very little is known of the Bucknell team. Certain it is, however, that they are a good lot, and will give a good account of themselves.

BOWLERS TO MEET TO-NIGHT IN CHAMPIONSHIP MATCH

Williams Is Leading, But Others Are Giving Him Close Chase—Large Crowd Expected To Be In Attendance.

The third series of bowling matches for the Richmond championship will be rolled to-night in Williams' alley, beginning at 8 o'clock, with a crowd of spectators. The bowlers have rolled six games so far, and have strung out their scores until the contest has become most interesting to all concerned.

To-night will be the third series of games, and three games will be rolled by each of the bowlers. The bowlers are: Williams, who leads with an average for the six games of 136, others are giving him a close chase, and no one can tell what the result will be. Several strong bowlers have not shown up as they should in the preliminary matches, and it is expected that they will come to the front in the remaining matches.

During the matches a large audience has always been present, and this interest has been shown by them in the results of the night's work. To-night a large crowd is expected, and the managers are doing all in their power to provide room for them.

The averages and scores up to date are as follows:

Player	Total Score	Average
Williams	1,008	136
Spilling	1,008	136
Meyers	1,008	136
Hicks	990	132
Knef	960	128
Bulley	942	124
Graves	924	120
Rowley	912	118
Rhodes	900	116
Bell	847	107
Krucks	834	104
Ebel	794	99
Perraro	780	96
Giles	681	85

Amateur Athletic Association
For Virginia.

A temporary committee has been formed with the Mayor of Richmond as Temporary Chairman, with the object of forming an Amateur Athletic Association in Virginia. One of the main objects in popularizing the movement will be to secure an Athletic Ground worthy of the State.

All interested in the movement are requested to fill out the accompanying form and forward same to Mr. J. A. MUIR, Temporary Secretary, 916 East Main Street, Richmond, Va.

TO THE AMATEUR ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION FOR VIRGINIA:

Gentlemen—I am heartily in favor of the movement on foot for clean amateur athletic sport in Virginia, and will do all in my power to further the proposition.

PROGRAM FOR AUTOMOBILE
RACES ON ORMOND BEACH

Arrangements for These Annual Contests, Which Attract Sportsmen and Professional Auto Car Drivers From All Leading Countries of World, Nearly Completed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEW YORK, November 1.—Arrangements have practically been completed for the annual automobile racing contests on Ormond Beach, Fla., this winter, and from present indications the meet will be up to the high standard established last January, when some dazzling records were made, including the winning of two miles in less than a minute. The week of January 23d to 27th are the dates decided upon, and the program has been made out, with a probability of additions to accommodate any particular race for which there may appear to be a general desire.

Twenty-three events are already on the program in the line of regular competition, and four trials for records against time at short distances. In addition, a 200-mile race may be added, but the count of themselves. Their percentage of old men is good, and they have had excellent coaching during the season. The backfield is light, but is known to be fast and experienced, while the line is very heavy, in comparison with the opposing team.

The selection of the officials was completed yesterday when it was finally decided to leave Homer Curlee, of the University of Texas, as head referee, and M. Butler, of Princeton, and Pat Barry, of Georgetown, will officiate as referee and umpire. Both are well known to the football world and will give a square deal to both sides.

On account of the petitions of many business men who could not be present if the game started at 2:30 o'clock, as was scheduled, it was also decided yesterday to call the game at 3 o'clock. This will give the fans a chance to be present at the usual places for the Bucknell-Virginia football game is already indicative of a big crowd.

The arrival of the two teams is looked forward to with great pleasure by the cheering and cheering crowd, and it is expected that the game will be a physical test of the respective warriors.

Virginia will get here some time to-day. Bucknell will arrive at 7:15 o'clock this evening, coming via Washington, and will stop at the Richmond. The team will be given their supper, and will be retired early. In the morning they will be taken out for an airing, and will be given an idea of the city. The team will be in charge of the coach, Mr. G. W. Hoskins, the physical director. Coach Hoskins is one of the best football coaches in the business. He is a former captain of the team, and a noted athlete. He is assisted in coaching the team by Bucknell alumni, who come in from time to time for that purpose and give their services gratis to the team, not even taking expenses. It is a rule at Bucknell that the coach, Mr. G. W. Hoskins, is assisted in coaching the team by alumni who are willing to give their services.

It is a well known fact, however, that the fight is on, and that the game will be a close one, and that Virginia received a wedding after a few games, it means only that the men are a little overworked, and are nervous on that account. The few days of rest before the game will restore them to their normal state of physical excellence.

Very little is known of the Bucknell team. Certain it is, however, that they are a good lot, and will give a good account of themselves.
